Finding Easter
in Christmas

Many familiar images of Christmas are actually symbols to connect Christmas to the Easter season. This is because Christmas and Easter are meant to be connected in our religious imagination. When we learn to see Christmas images through the eyes of Easter, we see that the Nativity is not simply about Christ's birth and childhood. It is really about his life's mission to proclaim the reign of God, a mission that will lead to his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension. The familiar elements of Christmas have a deeper meaning for all baptized Christians, who are called to see beyond the crèche to the cross.

Here are some examples of this Christmas-Easter connection:

Holly berries and leaves: The red berries of the holly tree remind us of the blood of Christ's passion, and the prickly edges of its leaves recall the crown of thorns.

Christmas wreaths: The crown of thorns has become the victorious crown of eternal life represented by the evergreen leaves.

Christmas tree: The wood of the Christmas tree on which we hang ornaments and gifts becomes the wood of the cross on which hung Jesus, the Savior of the world, the greatest gift we could receive.

Christmas lights: In dark times of the year, we light candles and put up lights. This reminds us of the paschal candle we will light at Easter, which is Christ our Light.

Angels: Christmas angels tell the shepherds, "Do not be afraid" as they announce the birth of Christ. At Easter the angel at the empty tomb tells the women, "Do not be afraid," announcing that Christ is risen.

Manger: A manger is a feeding trough for farm animals. Through the sacrifice of Jesus, his very Body and Blood become our Eucharist, the food and drink of eternity.

“ PREPARAD EL CAMINO DEL SEÑOR, ALLANAD SUS SENDEROS.

TODOS VERAN LA SALVACION DE DIOS” Lc.3,4-6

CUARTO DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

La Virgen y San José, con su fe, esperanza y caridad salen victoriosos en la prueba. No hay rechazo, ni frío, ni oscuridad ni incomodidad que les pueda separar del amor de Cristo que nace. Ellos son los benditos de Dios que le reciben. Dios no encuentra lugar mejor que aquel pesebre, porque allí estaba el amor inmaculado que lo recibe.

Nos unimos a La Virgen y San José con un sincero deseo de renunciar a todo lo que impide que Jesús nazca en nuestro corazón.

REFLEXION DE ADVIENTO

¿De qué manera se ha manifestado la presencia de Dios en nuestra familia durante el año?

¿Hemos dejado que Dios pueda actuar en nosotros o por el contrario le hemos estorbado?

ORACION

Padre, que nos has dado una familia en la cuál te hemos conocido y amado, ayúdanos a vivir teniéndote siempre presente en nuestras vidas. Te pedimos que en esta Navidad nos regales el quedarte con nosotros en nuestros corazones y sentir que vives en nuestro hogar, en nuestras familias.
Amén.
